THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

Published by A. G. HODGES & CO.

MONDAY, MAY 28, 1860.

For President,
JOHN BELL,
OF TENNESSEE.

For Vice President,
EDWARD EVERETT,
OF MASSACHUSETTS.

IMPORTANT LETTER.—We publish in another column a letter from Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, of Georgia, in regard to the present condition of the Democratic party. It will be seen that he unqualifiedly condemns all legislation by Congress in reference to the subject of Slavery in the Territories. He sustains in all its length and breadth the charge so frequently urged by Senator Douglas that the Northern and Southern Democratic leaders pledged themselves unreservedly to the doctrine of "non intervention." He clearly establishes the proposition that the leaders of the Southern Democracy in the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, bargained away the right of the South to demand Congressional legislation for the protection of slavery in the Territories. Let this be borne in mind; and especially let it not be forgotten when Southern Democrats talk about the ability of their party to sustain Southern rights.

CAN'T AGREE AMONG THEMSELVES.—The Democratic cannot agree touching the recent session at Charleston. We publish in our last that the Hon. Howell Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, had written a letter fully sustaining the seceders. The federal officials generally, and especially those from the South, sustain them also. On the other hand, Governor Johnson, Judges Nisbet and Warner, and other prominent Georgians, have written letters, which are published, condemning them, and favoring the Baltimore Convention. Again, at a Democratic mass meeting, at Augusta, Georgia, held on Saturday night, the 19th inst., they were sustained. A similar meeting was held in Montgomery on the same night, with the same result. As an offset to these opinions, we have the Democrats of Mobile, who held a mass meeting last Monday evening and denounced them and passed a resolution that Alabama be represented at the Baltimore Convention.

NORODY SPOKE OF HIM.—Some of our cotemporaries are commenting freely upon the fact, that amid all the discussions and wranglings, the noise and confusion of the Charleston Convention, Mr. Buchanan's name was not mentioned. How are the mighty fallen! But four years ago, he was "the standard-bearer of the Democracy," and his praise was in every Locooco mouth. He now occupies the highest office in our Government; but apart from the parasites who feed at the public crib "there is none so low as do him reverence." When he came into office, he had it in his power to render his name honorable and illustrious throughout the civilized world. It was only necessary for him to pursue a course of honesty and patriotism, to make men overlook his former misdeeds, and look upon him as one of the benefactors of his country; but he was haunted with the ambition to get a re-nomination, and in the vain hope of accomplishing this object, he sacrificed honor, and honesty, and reputation; and now his name will go down to posterity linked with infamy and shame. Although he was not spoken of in the Charleston Convention, his name is brought before the public with sufficient prominence by investigating committees.

THE CHICAGO CHIEF.—The Richmond Whig says if anything were needed to confirm the judgment of all sensible men that Black Republicanism is an imposture and cheat, it would be found in the very character of the body lately assembled at Chicago, in which delegates are admitted from six slave States, that out of largely over half a million of votes polled in the last Presidential election cast only 1247 for the Republican ticket. The States referred to and the votes they then cast are:

	Buchanan.	Fillmore.	Fremont.
Delaware,	8,003	6,175	396
Virginia,	89,976	60,039	291
Maryland,	39,115	47,462	281
Kentucky,	72,917	65,822	369
Missouri,	58,154	48,524	000
Texas,	31,169	15,639	000

The pretense that these States have lot or part with the Black Republicans, and are fairly members of the Chicago Convention, is too bald a humbug to deceive even the old women, who hang on to the coat tails of Phillips and Garrison.

CURIOUS.—The Democratic party has heretofore styled itself as the "united," "harmonious" Democracy, a party whose principles were "well known and well defined" and a party that is "national, and the same in every section." These things taken into consideration, it takes a remarkably long time, and involves considerable difficulty—as has been shown at the late Charleston Convention—to determine what are those "principles," or to settle the question, even about a "platform," on which the candidate is to stand.

□ We learn by telegraph that the case of Postmaster Ronald, of Louisville, is to be brought before the Covode Committee. He was appointed through the influence of Mr. Guthrie, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, and it will be proven that he deposited the receipts of the office with a private bank, from which Mr. Guthrie borrowed. Mr. Cobb pronounced this a violation of the Sub Treasury law, but through the influence of Postmaster General Holt, the President keeps him in office.

BOYLE COUNTY JAIL UNLOCKED AND TWO PRISONERS ESCAPED.—On Wednesday night the prison cells of the Boyle county jail were unlocked, and two of four prisoners escaped. Those, D. McGrath, who some months ago killed Benjamin Proctor, and George Anderson accused of horse stealing. There were two others confined, who say they did not know their cells were unlocked.

The jailor, Mr. Harness, was away from home, and the supervision is that a servant girl, who slept in the room with Mrs. Harness, had been bribed to steal the cell keys. On the morning after the prisoners had gotten out she ran away from home.

Bell and Everett.

VIRGINIA.—A letter from Loudoun county, Va., says:

Bell and Everett gives immense satisfaction to the conservative Whigs of old Loudoun. In Buckingham county, on the 14th, at a large meeting of citizens, the following resolution was adopted, and County Committees appointed to enforce it:

Resolved, That we cordially approve of and endorse the nomination made by the National Union Convention, held in Baltimore, of John Bell, of Tennessee, for President, and Edward Everett, of Massachusetts, for Vice President, and pledge our every effort to secure their election to the offices for which they are nominated.

TENNESSEE.—The Memphis Enquirer, owned and edited by two United States Senators, Clemens and Borland, has run up the Bell and Everett flag.

LOUISIANA.—The New Orleans Picayune, one of the ablest and most influential journals of Louisiana, gives its support to the Bell and Everett ticket. The Picayune says of the candidate for Vice President:

Mr. Everett is now entirely restored to health, and capable of taking upon himself the duties of the office for which he has been designated by the Union Convention, as one eminently fitted for them by his abilities and experience, the high qualities of moderate and patriotic conservatism, which have marked the whole of his career.

ALABAMA.—A dispatch of Saturday last from Selma, Ala., says:

There was a grand impromptu rally here last night, to respond to the glorious news from Baltimore. The nomination of Bell and Everett was cordially ratified. Speeches were made by Messrs. Boyd, Phillips and Frow, Whigs, and by Alex. White and J. W. Lapsley, who have recently been acting with the Democrats.

Guns were fired, and great enthusiasm prevailed. Middle Alabama is strong for the Union.

NORTH CAROLINA.—In Fayetteville, North Carolina, the citizens in favor of the nomination of the Baltimore Convention, held a large and enthusiastic meeting on the 14th. Speeches were made by able men, and the following resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That as Patriots and lovers of the Constitution and Laws, we congratulate our countrymen on the nomination of Bell and Everett as candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, hoping thereby all sectional feeling may be allayed, and the North and South may again learn to appreciate each other.

Resolved, That we are fully satisfied to take the Constitution as our Platform and guide in all future political movements, as adopted by the Baltimore Convention.

Here is what the Boston Traveler, a Republican paper says of the nomination of Mr. Bell. So far as talent, character, experience, and patriotic feeling go, this is a very good nomination. Mr. Bell is a man who has many excellent qualities, and would make a much better President than we have had for years. It would have been a fortunate thing for the country if a man like him had been chosen President in 1852.

HONORS TO THE VANQUISHED.—There is one idiosyncrasy of the British Government that is worth noticing. It lavishes as brilliant honors upon its vanquished sons as upon those who carry the Cross of St. George to victory over its foes. To the world surrounding Great Britain the impression is conveyed that John Bull regards a thrashing from America as equally creditable with a victory over the French or Russians. Great Britain has invariably honored and promoted every commanding officer flogged by the Americans from Capt. Dacres, of the Guerriere, down to Tom Sayres; while every minister or consul sent home by exequatur is received with marked distinction, and, strange to relate, invariably furnished with decidedly better posts than those they have disgraced. The thrashing received by Tom Sayres from Heenan, on the 17th of last month, has made his fortune, and netted him a larger sum as a testimonial from "his admiring countrymen," than the pension of the family of Lord Raglan, or any of the line of heroes who died in the battles of their country.

FOR THE LADIES.—For the complexion there is nothing like fresh air and an honest heart. The former covers your face with rose leaves, the latter with serenity. Ladies who believe in "Lilly White" should try this.

APPEAL TO THE METHODISTS.—The Rev. Dr. Sehon, of Nashville, Missionary Secretary, has issued a very pertinent and effective appeal to the preachers of the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences in behalf of his noble enterprise. He says that the Bishops have adopted measures to greatly strengthen the missionary work as now existing, and to increase the number of missions at home and abroad. To do this the Methodist church will be obliged to raise this year $300,000. In dividing the amount necessary to be raised, and assessing the Conferences accordingly, the following was the appropriation and assessment to the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences:

KENTUCKY.
Appropriated this year,	$1,500
Assessed to raise,	4,000
Raised last year,	2,369
LOUISVILLE.
Appropriated this year,	$1,200
Assessed to be raised,	6,000
Raised last year,	5,453

ADVICE.—As the hot season is approaching, every person should prepare their system for the change, and there is no remedy so applicable as "McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier." It will purify the blood thoroughly, and at the same time strengthen and invigorate the whole organization. The immense quantity of it that is sold daily, is proof enough of its great virtues in thoroughly removing all impure matter from the blood. We say to all try it! It is delicious to take. See the advertisement in another column.

UNFORTUNATE.—A Locooco cotemporary deplores the misfortune of the Postmaster of New York, who, while enjoying one of the most lucrative Government offices, has shown his gratitude by robbing the Department of $155,000, and has met with the misfortune of being found out. It is not wonderful that under such circumstances the unlucky official should find sympathy in the bosoms of his confederates. No one knows whose turn may come next.

Don't Want them Back.

How the Seceders from the Charleston Convention will relish what is said of them, and of their rumored return to the adjourned meeting in Baltimore, by the Washington States and Union, we do not know; nor what that journal will say or do, if they should return. But the States and Union is out-spoken and determined. It says:

"It is whispered about that the seceders have repented of their act, and now propose to return to their adjourned Convention at Baltimore, and unite in completing its work. As little as we respect the judgment or patriotism of the seceders, as low as we are compelled to estimate their real devotion to the best interests of the States they represented, we feel it to be our duty to defend them against the slander that they have ever, for a moment, contemplated such an act of gross prostitution and folly. They have no more right to appear and hold seats at Baltimore than at Chicago. They retired from Charleston, and the act of secession, made it impossible to return. But they proceeded to organize a new Convention. They gave in their allegiance to a new body and a new faith. They stigmatized the Convention from which they retired as the 'rump' of the party—its 'free-soil wing.' How painfully they must regard the effort of the policy managers in this city to bring them back, to compel them again to secede, and again to seek co-operation with those whom they have recently condemned and repudiated."

The Seceders, we imagine, are as little inclined to go back, as the Douglasses are to have them return. At least we infer so from the Charleston Mercury, which, speaking of the address got up at Washington, for the purpose of bringing about a reconciliation, says:

"We are glad to learn that not a representative from Alabama or South Carolina will sign it. We have not yet seen the address, but it appears to us that it can be nothing else but a piece of unparalleled impudence, and as foolish as it is impertinent. What business have members of Congress to counsel the seceding delegates from the Charleston Convention? Who asked their counsel? Or what responsibility have the seceding members of the Convention to the members of Congress? And when, it is remembered that the relations of the seceding members towards the Convention terminated with their secession, how absurd is the request that they shall return to the Convention! None of those men can or will return; and to the convenient substitutes they have named themselves appointed to the Baltimore Convention, no exhortations can be necessary to warn their patriotism or gain their acquiescence. If the interests and honor of the South, instead of party, were paramount in the consideration of these Southern members of Congress, it appears to us that the transactions they are daily witness to in Congress, would render it impossible for them to recommend any course which could tend to distract the councils or weaken the stern resolves of the South—Homestead, Tariff, and Wilmot Proviso bills, are insolently rushed through the House of Representatives; and, instead of presenting a becoming front of resistance to these infilliblic indications of the coercion of the South, they talk of sending forth weak remonstrances to the brave men who are striving to lift the South up to a policy adequate to the dangers which surround her. It is barely possible that the originators and signers of the contemplated address wish to prove to the people of the South, that they are utterly unreliable and rotten in everything connected with the General Government."

The wife of the Hon. Abraham Lincoln is, like himself, a native Kentuckian, being the daughter of Dr. Todd, formerly of Fayette county.

The above statement is partially incorrect.—Mrs. Lincoln is a daughter of the late Robert S. Todd, of Fayette county, for many years a prominent member of the Kentucky Senate.—He was also, for a long time, clerk of the House of Representatives of Kentucky. Mrs. Lincoln has yet many relations in Kentucky; among the number is Mrs. Ben. Hardin Helm, of Louisville, who is her half-sister.

CUT IN TWO.—The Memphis Avant-courier, an unusually candid organ of Democracy, confesses that on the test vote at Charleston, on the Platform, Mason and Dixon's line was seen "running straight through the heart of the Democratic Convention."

□ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that "J. B." is in a terrible humor just now. He took occasion to lecture the Western editors for criticizing his administration, and to denounce the Covode Committee, and it is anticipated that he will felicitate the Japanese upon the fact that they have no impudent and inquiring newspapers in their country, and, above all, that they have no John Covode.

CAPTURE OF ANOTHER SLAVER WITH 550 AFRICANS.—Hardly has the President's Message to the Senate, asking an appropriation to send back to Africa over 500 negroes, captured on board the Wild fire, been read, but we have to report that another slaver—the bark William, late of New York, has been taken into Key West, with 550 negroes on board, having been captured by the U. S. Steamer Wyandott, of the Isle of Pines.

□ A Washington telegraphic correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

"Gov. Wise has been expressing his opinions without reserve, of course, and consistency on the part of the Administration. He remarked the other day, in our hearing, that his belief is, if Douglas receives the nomination of the Charleston Convention he will be defeated, and that such an event will be the death and burial of the Democratic party. It was his opinion that Judge McLean, if nominated at Chicago and Baltimore, would defeat Douglas in Virginia and nearly every Southern State. He thinks Hunter is not a popular man enough, that Breckinridge is not the proper man, and Gen. Lane no better."

□ The Baltimore Convention take the hint, so strongly thrown out, and nominate the only man that Wise thinks can be elected, and that is himself!

FOR RE-ELECTION.—Judge Parker so well known as the Virginia Judge who sat in the John Brown trials, is a candidate for re-election. He has no opposition.

The Little Giant may yet come out victor. If he does what will become of the Paducah Herald and the Louisville Courier? Will they cease their demands for Congressional protection of slave property? Will they sustain a man whom they have again and again denounced as an unprincipled demagogue, and an enemy to Southern rights? Will they join the central clique and the "kid glove gentry" of this part of the country, and aid in elevating the great Squatter Sovereignty to the Chief Magistracy.

□ We can answer for ourselves, that we shall not support Douglas; nor join the central clique, nor do anything in behalf of squatter sovereignty; but we shall act with the Southern Democracy and vote with them to the end.

OPENING HYMN.—A Southern exchange paper is responsible for the following:

The Democratic Convention which is to hold its adjourned meeting at Baltimore, on the 18th of June, will open its session by singing the following verse from that good old hymn by Watts. Brother B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, will raise the tune and the entire Northwestern Squatter Sovereignty delegation, under the lead of Richardson, of Illinois, will join in the chorus:

So when a raging fever burns,
And in its deadly grasp is torn,
But 'tis a poor relief we gain,
To change the pillow but keep the pain.

The Maynard Rifle and Shot-Gun.

PATENTED BY

Dr. Edward Maynard, of Washington, D. C.

THE undersigned are the sole agents in Kentucky for the above celebrated arms.

The barrels are from 20 to 36 inches in length, and are breech-loading. The Rifle barrels may be disassembled, and the shot barrels inserted in ten seconds. When charged, the gun may be fired with the self-primer or a cap may be used. It can be loaded and discharged with certainty of aim ten times a minute. At 1,300, 700 and 500 yards upon experiment, the gun was found accurate and the penetration surprising.

The Stock and Rifle barrel weigh six pounds, and may be put up in a small case.

We have now on hand a supply of these guns, viz: No. 1 Military finish, 20 to 36 inch barrel, Rifles only (or Rifle and Shot) 20 or 36 inch barrels, primers, moulds, cartridges, &c., to accompany.

No. 2, Sporting finish, 20 to 36 inch barrel, Rifle only (or Rifle and Shot) 20 to 36 inch calibre, primers, moulds, cartridges, &c., to accompany.

A printed direction for using the gun, with a complete description of it, may be had on application, and is sent with each one sold. We have the gun complete in cases.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Intrinsic virtue alone could insure the success which this article has attained. For Rheumatism, Salt Rheum, Burns, Bruises, Stiff Joints, or Galls, Sprain, Pole Evil, and Swellings upon Horses, it has no equal. No person will be without it who has once tested its value. And with reference to the general estimation of the Mustang Liniment, I can cheerfully say that no article ever performed so many cures in our neighborhood as this. L. W. SMITH, Ridgefield, Conn. S. LUTCH, Esq., Hyde Park, Pa. writes, "that the horse was considered worthless, (his case was sprain), but since the free use of the Mustang Liniment I have sold him for $150. Your Liniment is doing wonders up here." Such testimony is reaching us every day. The half is not told. Every family should have it. Beware of imitations. The genuine Mustang is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world. BARNES & PARK, Proprietors, New York.
